Event Cancellation

Should the Exposition be canceled due to events beyond the control of the Lessor, including but not limited to acts of God, war, including armed conflict, strikes or labor disputes, disease (examples: COVID -19, SARS, bird flu, Legionnaires), government regulation or advisory (travel bans), destruction of exhibit facility, civil disturbance, terrorist attacks or threats of terrorism in the city which the event is located, natural disasters, curtailment of transportation either in the city or in the countries/states of origin of the attendees, which prevents at least 40% of the attendees from arriving for the first scheduled day of the event or any other cause beyond the Lessors control, make it impracticable, illegal, or impossible to perform as originally contracted under this Agreement, the Lessor may terminate this Agreement, without liability, except to refund monies received less a pro-rated share of Exposition expenses incurred, upon written notice.
